- Offence committed in a branch of the company: liability profiles;
- Concurrent responsibility of the statutory auditors;
- Responsibility of the directors;
- Precautionary measures vis-à-vis the company;
- Bankruptcy proceedings and criminal profiles.

2009-2016 – Lecturer of “Mercantile, tax and fiscal law” for the company FIDIA (Training and Consulting) and Lecturer for higher training courses on Mercantile law and Labour law.

2001 - Collaboration with businesses where I studied internal management systems in-depth. Specifically:

- GlaxoSmithKline (Verona): I worked care of the internal communication division of GlaxoSmithKline. The company was completing the process for merger between two large industrial and research entities. I analysed both the internal problematic aspects of the merger processes, and the problems deriving from the impact of the transfer of certain administrative, production and research sites (closure of sites, relocation ...). Specifically, I followed the activities indicated below:
  - realisation of a survey on the company climate;
  - development of a project analysing the organisational culture;
  - definition of an internal communication model - the house organ.
- Cantine Mezzacorona (Trento): I analysed the use of the main internal communications instruments: such as for the example the house organ.
